9 As to paragraph 9 the Respondents admit the allegations save as to the number of trees alleged to be cut down and the species which the Respondents do not admit.

10 As to paragraph 10 the Respondents deny the allegation and plead that it is unlikely, given the small number of breeding pairs of the cockatoo in the wild population and given the large area over which the population ranges, that the actions of the second Respondent had any significant impact on the cockatoo.

10.1. As to paragraph 10.1 the Respondents deny the allegation.

10.2. As to paragraph 10.2 the Respondents do not plead.

10.3. As to paragraph 10.3 the Respondents deny the allegation.

10.4. As to paragraph 10.4 the Respondents deny the allegation.

10.5. As to paragraph 10.5 the Respondents deny the allegation.

10.6. As to paragraph 10.6 the Respondents deny the allegation.

11 As to paragraph 11 the Respondents deny that any action of the second Respondent had or is likely to have any significant impact on the cockatoo species.

12 As to paragraph 12 the Respondents do not plead.

13 As to paragraph 13 the Respondents deny that they or either of them have contravened section 484 of the Act.

14 As to paragraph 14 the Respondents admit that the second Respondent was an Executive Officer of RLSPL and that he was in a position to influence the conduct of RLSPL but deny that they or either of them failed to take all reasonable steps to prevent a contravention of section 494 of the Act.

15 As to paragraph 15 the Respondents admit the allegation.

16 As to paragraph 16 the Respondents admit the allegation.

17 As to paragraph 17 the Respondents do not admit the allegation.
